JOHNSON WINS SEAT IN SENATE

FARMER-LABOR CANDIDATE IS NEW SELECTION

Mangus Johnson to Succeed
Knuie Nelson in U. S.
Senate

PREUS IS DEFEATED

New Senator From Minnesota is Arch Foe of Harding Principles

St. Paul, Minn., July 17.—Two members of the Farmer-Labor Party now represent the state of Minnesota in the United States Senate, following yesterday's special election which resulted in the selection of Mangus Johnson to succeed to the seat left vacant by the death of Knuie Nelson.

Governor J. A. O. Preus, Republican, conceded his defeat at midnight.

Indications today, based on additional returns were that Johnson's majority probably will reach 65,000. Of 3,521 precincts throughout the state reporting early today 2,353 Johnson 213,562 and Preus 178,126, a lead of 25,000 for Johnson with one third of the state still to hear from.

Johnson carried St. Paul by over 4,000 and lacked only 341 votes of carrying Preus' home city, Minneapolis.

Preus had been expected to carry Minneapolis by 20,000.

Practically all the remaining precincts to be heard from are farmer precincts. They are expected to go heavily for Johnson.

The other Farmer-Labor member from Minnesota is Senator Henrik Shipstead, elected last fall at the regular election.

The new senator is regarded as an arch foe of the principles of the Harding administration, including the war court of justice. He has declined to commit himself on prohibition.

He favors a soldier's bonus and probably will follow the policies of Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin, leader of the Republican insurgents.

Washington, July 17.—Opponents of the Harding administration both within and without the Republican party were jubilant today over the election of Mangus Johnson, the Farmer-Labor candidate, to the seat in the United States senate, which Knuie Nelson, Republican, occupied for more than a quarter of a century.

Although members of the Republican senatorial campaign committee threw their support to Governor J. A. O. Preus, who opposed Johnson, private advices from St. Paul during the past few days had prepared them for the disappointing outcome of the Minnesota election.

The few Republican senators who are in Washington had very little to say concerning Johnson's victory and scarcely anything at all for publication. It was expected, however, that formal statements, commenting on the result, would be issued during the day by the Republican and Democratic National Committees, both of which were greatly concerned over the Minnesota campaign.

Johnson's election has reduced the Republican majority in the 68th Congress to only six votes, compared with 21 in the last Congress.

Assuming that a Republican successor is named to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Dillingham of Vermont, the new congress will have 51 Republicans, 43 Democrats and two Farmer-Laborists.

The actual Republican strength, however, will be much less, due to the disaffection of such senators as LaFollette of Wisconsin, Brookhart, Borah, Norris and Frazier.

MRS. HARDING ILL

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 17.—Tired out by her activities since she started from Washington, with the President, Mrs. Warren G. Harding, it was admitted today, is suffering considerably from fatigue. Yesterday she remained all day in her hotel room, not leaving it until time to board the train that carried the presidential party from this town.

Doctors Boone and Sawyer said Mrs. Harding's condition was not serious, but that she was badly in need of rest.

EXPORTS GAIN; FIGURES SHOW BIG INCREASE

Pre-War Average Exceeded Hoover's Statement Indicates

Washington, July 17.—The argument that the United States can not prosper until it accomplishes the rehabilitation of the old world received a setback with the publication by the department of commerce of compilations showing American exports to the six nations of western Europe most affected by the world war and subsequent economic difficulties.

The official figures reveal that these six nations during 1922 purchased American exports to a value exceeding by 49 per cent the average for the five years immediately preceding the war. Exporters of agricultural products, it is shown, were especially fortunate. The value of their commodities exported during 1922 exceeded the pre-war average by 51 per cent.

During the period 1910-1924, inclusive, American exports to the United Kingdom, Germany, France, the Netherlands, Italy and Belgium totaled $1,218,000,000 annually, or which commodities valued at $801,000,000 were classified as agricultural products. During 1922, according to the figures of the department of commerce, the total exports were $1,908,000,000, of which agricultural products made up $1,257,000,000.

The great increase was effected despite the fact that the annual exports to Germany increased from $311,000,000 to only $316,000,000. Agricultural exports to Germany showed an increase of $36,000,000, but the fall in the purchases of other products amounted to $31,000,000, thus leaving a net gain of only $5,000,000.

In this connection the department explains: "The figures given show clearly that the large industrial area of Europe, which is the predominant market for our agricultural products, has been taking a relatively larger proportion of these commodities recently than they did before the war."

Agricultural exports from the United States to the entire world approximate 50 per cent of all commodities shipped abroad, according to government compilations. Eighty-four per cent of the agricultural total, it is estimated, goes to Europe, and 92 per cent of the European total is taken by the six countries named.

The compilations of the department of commerce show that, although exports are far above the pre-war figures, they are barely one-half the total for the boom year of 1920. During that year the United States sent to the six nations exports totaling $3,505,000,000, of which $2,340,000,000 were agricultural products. In 1921 the total figure dropped to $1,904,000, and the agricultural commodities to $1,469,000,000.

GEDDES GIVES HIS OPINION OF LAW

London, July 17.—The government issued a "white paper," in which Ambassador Geddes at Washington is quoted as declaring that American prohibition, on the whole, has been effective in the rural districts and smaller towns throughout the United States.

The most significant facts in regard to the effect of prohibition as quoted by the ambassador is a 40 per cent increase in savings banks deposits and increased efficiency among workers. Prohibition is less effective, the ambassador declares, along the eastern seaboard and in the vicinity of the Great Lakes, where powerful organizations of smugglers carry on a regular traffic in liquor. Home brewing, he says, is largely on the decrease. He declared that one of the worst effects of the dry law is that men who drank sparingly before prohibition now carry flasks to social gatherings.

DENY REPORTS OF LAW VIOLATIONS

Columbus, July 17.—Reports from Washington that prohibition enforcement conditions in Dayton are unsatisfactory were denied here today by H. M. Paul, assistant federal director for Ohio.

"We have no complaints of unusual activity of bootleggers or failure of the municipal authorities to enforce the prohibition laws in Dayton," Paul declared.

The federal prohibition office in Washington is quoted as saying Director R. A. Haynes was coming to Oldo for an investigation and that he would particularly look into the Dayton situation.

Sullivan, president of the Columbus Federation of Labor, announced today. Increased pay for state civil service employees is the object of the proposed union.

Succession of Cloudbursts Early Tuesday Morning Results in Overflow of Castlewood Dam—Several Small Towns Are Inundated

Denver, Colo., July 17.—Flood waters, pouring over the Castlewood dam today were threatening to undermine the structure and wipe out the entire Cherry Creek Valley near Parker, Colorado, and perhaps a large section of Denver.

Desperate efforts are being made to strengthen the huge dam which is the sole bulwark of millions of gallons of water.

Flood warnings are being sent out to residents of lower Denver and numerous surrounding small towns.

Property damage already caused by the flood is incalculable.

The flood water resulted from a succession of cloudbursts early this morning. Rushing torrents resulting from the overflow of the Castlewood dam, 50 miles south of here, inundated several small towns.

Residents of Franktown, Parker, Melvin, Sullivan and the lower sections of Denver spent the night in nearby hills.

"If the Castlewood dam breaks it will flood Denver and the towns between Castlewood to an almost unbearable extent," John E. Field, who engineered the building of the dam, said to day.

"Parker, Franktown and Sullivan and other towns will probably be wiped out altogether and terrific damage to Denver would result.

Guards have been placed by the city and county along Cherry Creek with instructions to flash signs of danger to Denver.

Cattle and livestock in large numbers have been swept downstream by the raging torrents. Reports of deaths throughout the state as yet are unconfirmed.

SERIOUS ALASKA CHARGES PLACED BEFORE HARDING

Efforts Alleged to Cripple Operation of Railroad In Territory

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 17.—The activity of British and Canadian interests to cripple the American government's efforts to operate the railway line from tidewater into the interior for opening up Alaska presented a new problem which was laid before President Harding.

Specific charges that these foreign interests are doing their utmost to keep traffic from routing over the government line from Seward to Fairbanks were brought to the president's attention with the urgent demand by shippers and those interested in Alaskan development that immediate steps be taken by the government to make reprisals upon the enemies of the government enterprise.

The charges are contained in an editorial published in the Tanana Daily News, copies of which were placed in the president's hands on the way here. It charges that the White Pass and Yukon Railway, running from Skagway to the Yukon river at White Horse, is unfriendly to the government enterprise connecting Seward and Fairbanks, and is doing everything possible to divert traffic and passengers from coming into this part of Alaska.

The loss to the government enterprise through the Canadian conspiracy is declared to be very heavy.

These new charges of interference with the efforts of the government to make the American-owned railway a success are closely linked with the revelations alleging how the Morgan and Guggenheim interests saddled upon the government a worn out and useless railway line from Seward to Anchorage and prevented the government from going into Cordova, which would have been a more suitable terminus for a railway into the interior, with better harbor facilities.

The president slept last night at the farthest point north ever reached by any president. This place is 150 miles from the Arctic circle, and though the temperature last night was no colder than in Washington, it suffers a drop in midwinter to about 60 or 70 below zero. It was midnight when the president and Mrs. Harding retired to their room in the hotel, but at that hour daylight still prevailed and people walked about the streets with the same ease and abandon as if it were noon.

Complete abandonment of plans to take the president over the Richardson trail to Cordova was announced, because it was felt too difficult and wearisome a trip for Mrs. Harding, although she has stood every portion of the trip amazingly well to this point.

FARMER FATALLY INJURED BY CAR

Arcanum, O., July 17.—While his wife stood in the doorway waving goodbye, Clarence Swank, a farmer, drove onto the tracks of the Union City division of the O. E. traction line and was probably fatally injured by an oncoming car, this morning, a short distance north of here.

Swank was rushed to the hospital at Greenville where he was found to be suffering from broken arm, ribs and cuts about the head. It was feared he might be suffering from internal injuries which will prove fatal.

The automobile was demolished by the crash and carried a distance down the tracks. Mrs. Swank was prostrated.

EXPECT 150 FORMER MEMBERS OF CO. F. 330TH INFANTRY TO ATTEND REUNION TO BE HELD HERE ON WEDNESDAY

One hundred and fifty or more former members of Company F, 330th Infantry, 83rd Division, are expected to attend the first annual reunion of that organization at the Greene County Fairgrounds, all day Wednesday.

"When Major Edmunds says 'fall in,' I'll fall out," he said.

Officers of the company will also be present, according to Sheriff Morris Sharp, erstwhile "top kick" of Company F, who is acting as aide in Greene County in planning for the reunion.

Dr. W. P. Edmunds, Washington C. H., former captain of the company, and later Major in charge of the battalion of which that company was a part, inspired the reunion and has taken a large part in the arrangements. He was beloved of all in his command during the war and many will return to renew acquaintance with their former commander.

Dr. Edmunds has not learned whether Colonel Trott, Cleveland, Regimental Commander, will be present. He has been extended an invitation. Captain Basquin, who succeeded Major Edmunds in command, and Lieutenants Clark and Wead are among officers expected to be present.

The reunion will start at nine o'clock, in contradiction of orders sent out to be in uniform, it is announced that former company members should attend whether in uniform or not. Many will wear their uniforms, it is said.

The program has not yet been announced, but it is expected that former companions from Fayette, Greene and Clinton Counties will be busy during the morning renewing friendships. It is possible that there will be a hike to the river and a swim scheduled for the afternoon.

James Curlett, a former mess sergeant with the company is preparing plenty of food for two meals. Assisted by other cooks and mess sergeants of the outfit, he expects to draft into service a number of "kitchen police" to assist in getting out two big meals. "Army slum" will be taboo at the mess, both noon and evening, which will be the first time officers and men ever sat down to eat together. Army regulations will be swept away for the first time that all have been together and the reunion will be run on a civilian basis. Major Edmunds may try his former charges in a few maneuvers such as "squads east and west," but that will be only in the spirit of fun.

WOMEN IN THE PARTY.

By John T. Adams, Chairman of the Republican National Committee.—The Republican party welcomes the activity of women in politics. The best proof of the sincerity of its welcome is the fact that the Republican party made it possible for women to be given the constitutional right of citizenship.

In the Republican party organizations women are performing a very valuable service. Their relation to the party organization is not perfunctory or merely honorary; it is one of activity and responsibility—a full participating partnership.

Women have actively entered politics, with the full right of citizenship, at a critical period. It is commonplace that the home and family are the cornerstone of all worthy government. In the main, problems of government are but home and family problems magnified. All policies of government react, directly or indirectly, upon the family and home life.

The great distinction between this country and other countries is the higher standard of living enjoyed here by the average family, the greater protection and safeguard thrown about children and women, the greater opportunity afforded the rising generation. All these vitally concern the home. They are distinctively Republican policies. The Republican party has always stood for the integrity, independence and upliftment of the home and the individuals within the home.

The woman of the household is the budget director. Upon her falls the responsibility of making both ends meet. She appreciates the difficulty of such a task. For that reason, none are more capable of assisting in bringing about public economy than the women of the country, and none are more appreciative of the work of this administration in that direction than the women of the country. Federal taxes have been reduced a million dollars annually, the bulk of which are lifted from the shoulders of the average family. The interest-bearing public debt has been reduced over $2,000,000,000 since March 1, 1921. The fiscal year of the federal government just closed witnessed the operation of the routine affairs of the government for $2,000,000,000 less than the government was run during the last year of the Democratic administration. These accomplishments appeal strongly to the budget directors of American families. With their support the Republican party will make further economies in public affairs.

The Republican party is truly characterized as a party of construction. It has always been such. The record of the present administration for construction and readjustment is one not equalled by any previous administration in our nation's history, or by the administration of any foreign nation of today.

There is no doubt that Republican women will do their full part in the organization and other activities of the party. Their record since their citizenship is ample evidence of this. The necessity of party loyalty and party work cannot be over-estimated. This is a government of parties which receive their commission from the people, are held responsible by the people, and are compelled to make an accounting to the people. Those who would participate to an advantage in the affairs of their government must participate actively in party affairs. The Republican women cannot perform a greater service to themselves, to their party, or to their country than by active, whole-hearted participation in party organization work.

SOCIETY WILL RECONCILE ITSELF TO THEIR CHOICE.

Ten "political prisoners" refuse to accept commutation of their sentences on the conditions laid down by the President of the United States—that they obey the laws in the future, and prove themselves good citizens of the country which shelters them. To thus agree, the "political prisoners" assert, would be to stultify themselves. No doubt they are right. Assuredly it would be a marked change for them to leave off abusing their government and make themselves law abiding patriotic Americans. Rather than attempt so sharp a departure from their past way of thinking and doing, these ten "political prisoners" will remain in the penitentiary. It is, all good citizenship will agree, the place for such crooked thinkers. Whether mentally or morally decrepit, men who harbor hatred of the republic which is their home, and which affords them opportunities for useful and happy living unequalled by those of any other land on earth, are unfitted for the responsibilities of freedom. They are unfitted to associate on terms of equality with the honest and conscientious men and women of this nation. Society can well reconcile itself to their choice of continued imprisonment rather than good behavior outside iron bars and stone walls.

Yesterday was a great day for picnics and the traction lines through the city had about all they could handle in taking care of the crowds. It is estimated that twelve hundred people visited Neff grounds yesterday.

A rapid transit car was coming toward Xenia last night when it struck a bunch of cows which had wandered onto the track beyond the new bridge at Lucas Grove. One cow was killed.

Mr. John Harbige Jr. left this morning for Cincinnati, where he is a business visitor for the day.

Young Housewife: "What do you consider the best luncheon or supper dish you have ever heard of? I am going to have some 'in-laws' to supper and would appreciate a quick answer."

Answer: Tuna Baked Dish is, in my opinion, the most delicious supper or luncheon dish. It has the delicate flavor of a chicken dish, and I would advise you to use that for your company. I will repeat the recipe here for the sake of those who might have missed seeing it in the column some time ago:

Tuna Baked Dish: Turn the contents of one small can (half pound) of tuna fish into a bowl and stir into it one well-beaten egg, add one-half cup of sweet milk and one cup of bread crumbs (stale). Bake in a buttered dish in a hot oven for 15 minutes. Of course you must double this recipe for four or more people. (Salmon may be used in place of the tuna fish in this recipe if desired, but it has not the delicate flavor.) My menu next week will call for this dish, so be sure to file it away, as it will not be repeated.

Answer: No, but perhaps some Reader Friend may know of this recipe and will be kind enough to write it on a postal and mail it to me (care of this paper) to publish for you.

Marine Corps Commander Has New Aide

Brig Gen. Logan Feland

Brigadier-General Logan Feland, United States Marine Corps, hero of Belleau Wood and a dozen other bloody fields of France, has been appointed aide to Major-General John A. Lejeune, commanding the famous corps. General Feland was formerly head of the Division of Operations and Training of the Corps and succeeds Major-General W. C. Neville as assistant to the commanding general. He has served with the Marines since 1899 and was among the first to sail for France, where he won the D. S. C. and the D. S. M. and the rank of Officer in the French Legion of Honor.

Styles BY LENORE

Perhaps you have wearied of seeing monograms so often repeated on blouses and dresses. A smart Fifth Avenue shop cleverly varies this idea by substituting a cluster of field flowers in different combinations and the result is astonishingly effective. It has been tried on white silk sports blouses, and on a very simple sports frock, which is illustrated in the sketch.

White, green and old blue linen make an excellent background for these vivid spots of color, with white organdy collar and cuffs, and narrow ribbon to match the color of the dress or one of the colors of the embroidery, if the frock is white.

HEAL SKIN DISEASES

Apply Zemo, Clean, Penetrating, Antiseptic Liquid

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with Eczema, Blotches, Ringworm, Rashes and similar skin troubles. Zemo obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cures and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. Get it today and save all further distress.

In either case, there is an opportunity to satisfy vagaries of the mood by changing the colors of the ribbon.

Ginghams and chambrays are stressed in many of the summer designs, and indeed are preferred by many to linen, as they retain their freshness. The chemise model with short sleeves, the type that is cut with fullness at the sides is usually employed as the basis of these dresses, and they are frequently trimmed with applique motifs of sateen, or linen, applied to the dress with hand-stitching. Tucking and cross-stitching in floral designs are also used a lot.

TWO DRY OFFICERS RESIGN.

Columbus, July 17.—In line with changes being made in the prohibitory department under the administrative direction of Governor Donahay, F. E. Gary and H. E. McCullough of this city, prohibition inspectors, have resigned, their resignations to become effective Aug. 1. The resignation of Inspector Gary was asked for by Prohibition Commissioner McDonald and Inspector McCullough, Gary's running mate, voluntarily resigned.

RAIN STOPS REDS
WHEN OTHER CLUBS FAIL TO HALT THEM

Old Man Rain did something that seven clubs in the National League have failed to do successfully Monday when he stopped the Cincinnati Reds flat at Boston. And it took a cloud-burst to do it.

All set to reach out behind Adelto Luque and Rube Benton and take the Braves for two victories, the Redlegs were much disappointed at the untimely action of the elements.

The postponement means the scheduled double-header with the same pitchers working is on tap for Tuesday. A double-win will increase the prestige of the Moranites especially should the Giants lose. The Reds picked up a half-game during the idleness Sunday and had visions of another gain in the percentage column Monday when the Cubs trounced the Giants in the opening contest Monday but the champions came back to take the second fracas and even the standing.

REAL BASEBALL
MARKED SUNDAY AFTERNOON GAME

With major league ball teams giving wild and wooly exhibitions of the national pastime in which the so-called "lively ball" is taken advantage of, it is refreshing to see a semi-pro contest such as that staged between the Xenia Bayliffs and the Cincinnati Coca Colas at Washington Park Sunday.

It is true that fans like to see the home team win, but they would rather be furnished with a real diamond contest such as Sunday's pastime even with the home team losing than one of these slaughters in which the home team licks through to an overwhelming victory.

Baseball as clean as a whistle was shown at the Park here Sunday. The pastime was air tight for six innings and this was especially shown with men on bases. A good example took place in the first inning. Stiles' "stole" first base, getting there on a raincheck when his bounder drew the doorkeeper off and his peg to the bag was late. Marly sacrificed him to second and he took third on Furnas' bunt down the third base line. Furnas being safe, Furnas stole second and Shuey walked. At this stage Shuey started an attempted squeeze play by taking a big lead off first, Shuey drew the throw all right, but the Cincinnati infield worked with such precision that Stiles was out off the plate on a peer from first. Tucker popped out for the finale.

This is just an illustration of the tightness of the game which kept the lugs on their toes all the time. If this kind of baseball is on tap here, why

but a familiar face

If a magician could switch around every Standard Service Station in Ohio you would never feel the difference except, perhaps, in the absence of the familiar attendant. Even then you would miss only his face and voice. You'd find the same prompt, courteous service and good, high-grade fuel and lubricants.

The man behind the Red Crown pump will cheerfully set you on your way with the good "gas" you've learned to appreciate.

Red Crown is famous for its complete chain of boiling points that gives it the heat power and range required to start and operate a motor efficiently.

in their playing they will find themselves shipwrecked.

The Giants have 71 more games to play and fifty of them are with the western teams. Up to date, the Giants have played their western rivals 38 games and of these have only annexed 20 victories.

When the Giants went west on their last trip they had what appeared to be a commanding lead, but they fell by the wayside and come home barely in first place. They increased this advantage by winning games from the Philadelphians and Braves, who have given them little opposition this year, but when the western teams again hit the Polo Grounds, the needed punch to outdistance their rivals was lacking.

The time of the four heats is also considered in its place at the Findlay meeting of the Ohio Show Ship Circuit Monday.

Cupid Albingen, with Henry Thompson up, established the new record by trotting a mile in the third heat of the Phoenix Hotel $2,000 stake in 2:05 3-4.

The gelding took the fourth heat in 2:07 1-2 to win the feature event.

The half-mile trotting record was previously held by four horses at 2:06 1-4.

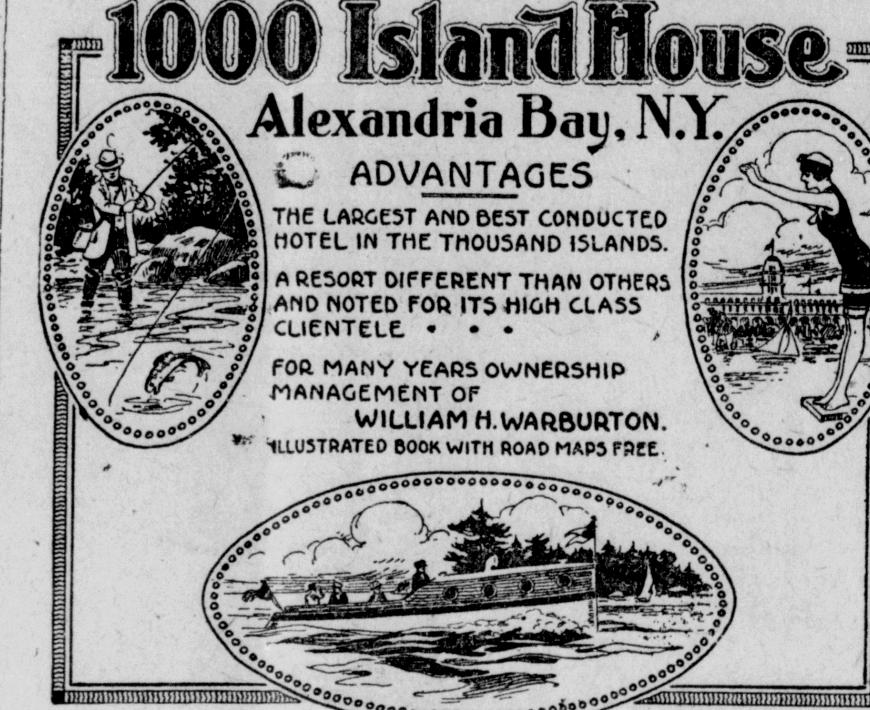

They were Charley Rex, 2:04 1-4; Bienville, 2:02 3-4; Esperanza, 2:03 3-4; and Clyde the Great, 2:03 3-4.

Herbel Wyn of the Hal Erwin stable equalled the former record of 2:06 1-4 two years ago at Findlay in an exhibition mile.

FANS SAY KEARNS
WILL REJECT TEX
RICKARD'S OFFER

New York, July 17.—Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champ, is today "thinking over" Tex Rickard's offer to stage a meeting between Dempsey and Luis Angel Firpo in Argentina in October.

Fight fans predicted Kearns would turn down the offer. Rickard's hope is that the fight would draw an $800,000 gate—half to go to Dempsey—if staged in South America.

HOST OF APPLICANTS PLACED.

Columbus, July 17.—The past year has been the greatest in actual accomplishment for state-city free employment service, according to Otto W. Braeh, chief of the division. Of 472,061 applicants for work at the 13 offices throughout the state, 260,504 persons were placed out of 300,307 who were referred to positions. There were 339,270 jobs open, according to the report.

When Your Gas

Bill Goes Up

Have a look and see if it isn't too much for what you are getting. Probably you can cut it materially without inconvenience to yourself.

Matches are cheaper than gas. When you are not using gas, why let it burn?

You cannot heat a liquid hotter than its boiling point. When the contents of your cooking utensil begin to boil, turn down the flame. Your money pays for the unnecessary heat.

Look For Leaks

Then have a look for gas leaks. Government engineers say about one foot of every six delivered to households is wasted in little leaks. They don't do anybody any good—and one dollar in every six is worth saving.

Maybe you are using appliances not originally intended for gas burning. That is expensive. They cannot deliver more than a third efficiency.

Promoting the General Welfare

1.—Let railroad rates and railroad laws alone for the present. Give the railroads a chance to get on their feet financially before further tightening up on their earnings. Give the Transportation Act of 1920 a more adequate test before determining what revisions—if any—it requires.

2.—Get solidly back of the railroads in carrying out their adequate transportation program of 1920—recognizing the fact that the continued prosperity of the country is dependent upon the successful carrying out of that program.

3.—Give every possible encouragement to the loyal and earnest working forces of the railroads so that they may cooperate in the best and most enthusiastic spirit with the management.

The agricultural, industrial and commercial interests of the country in promoting the general welfare have been invited to take an active part in making this platform effective. With the support of the public it is confidently believed that our railroads, their managers and employees, will be able to splendidly and efficiently perform the vitally important task which has been set for them to do.

JOHNSON WINS SEAT IN SENATE

FARMER-LABOR CANDIDATE IS NEW SELECTION

Mangus Johnson to Succeed Knute Nelson in U. S. Senate

PREUS IS DEFEATED

New Senator From Minnesota Is Arch Foe of Hard-
ing Principles

St. Paul, Minn., July 17.—Two members of the Farmer-Labor Party now represent the state of Minnesota in the United States Senate, following yesterday's special election which resulted in the selection of Mangus Johnson to succeed to the seat left vacant by the death of Knute Nelson. Governor J. A. O. Preus, Republican, conceded his defeat at midnight. Indications today, based on additional returns were that Johnson's majority probably will reach 65,000. Of 3,521 precincts throughout the state reporting early today 2,353 Johnson 213,662 and Preus 178,126, a lead of 35,000 for Johnson with one third of the state still to hear from. Johnson carried St. Paul by over 4,000 and lacked only 341 votes of carrying Preus' home city, Minneapolis.

Preus had been expected to carry Minneapolis by 20,000.

Practically all the remaining precincts to be heard from are farmer precincts. They are expected to go heavily for Johnson.

The other Farmer-Labor member from Minnesota is Senator Henrik Shipstead, elected last fall at the regular election.

The new senator is regarded as an arch foe of the principles of the Harding administration, including the world court of justice. He has declined to commit himself on prohibition.

He favors a soldier's bonus and probably will follow the policies of Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin, leader of the Republican insurgents.

Washington, July 17.—Opponents of the Harding administration both within and without the Republican party were jubilant today over the election of Mangus Johnson, the Farmer-Labor candidate, to the seat in the United States senate, which Knute Nelson, Republican, occupied for more than a quarter of a century.

Although members of the Republican senatorial campaign committee threw their support to Governor J. A. O. Preus, who opposed Johnson, private advices from St. Paul during the past few days had prepared them for the disappointing outcome of the Minnesota election.

The few Republican senators who are in Washington had very little to say concerning Johnson's victory and scarcely anything at all for publication. It was expected, however, that formal statements, commenting on the result, would be issued during the day by the Republican and Democratic National Committees, both of which were greatly concerned over the Minnesota campaign.

Johnson's election has reduced the Republican majority in the 68th Congress to only six votes, compared with 21 in the last Congress.

Assuming that a Republican successor is named to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Dillingham of Vermont, the new congress will have 51 Republicans, 43 Democrats and two Farmer-Laborists.

The actual Republican strength, however, will be much less, due to the disaffection of such senators as LaFollette of Wisconsin, Brookhart, Borah, Norris and Frazier.

MRS. HARDING ILL

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 17.—Tired out by her activities since she started from Washington, with the President, Mrs. Warren G. Harding, it was admitted today she is suffering considerably from fatigue. Yesterday she remained all day in her hotel room, not leaving it until time to board the train that carried the presidential party from this town.

Doctors Boone and Sawyer said Mrs. Harding's condition was not serious, but that she was badly in need of rest.

COMMITTEE NAMED

Columbus, O., July 17.—J. F. Hurst, editor of the New Philadelphia Times, has been named by Governor Donahey as his personal representative on the committee appointed to commemorate Schoenbrunn, early Moravian village. State Senators W. F. Garver, Holmes County, and Frank O. Wise, Stark County, and Representatives James F. Fluegert, Stark County, and James F. Ehrhart, Tuscarawas County, are the other members of the committee.

"Jekyll and Hyde" Student Held.

Harry R. Pine, 17, recent graduate of the Camden (N. J.) County High School, is held in Camden on the charge of having been implicated in a number of daring house robberies. The boy, preparing for the ministry, comes from a wealthy family and was always well supplied with spending money. Only two weeks before his arrest, he filled the pulpit of the Union Methodist Episcopal Church, in Camden, in the absence of the regular pastor.

APPLICATION MAY BE MADE TO HAVE RECEIVERS NAMED

Columbus, July 17.—Application for appointment of receivers for a number of R. L. Dollings Company subsidiaries may be made in the court here, according to today's plans of Attorneys Williams, Stuks and Williams, representing stockholders of the Dollings Company, who want the firm put under receivership.

It was indicated that the thirteen stockholders, who demanded an accounting of the Dollings officials would endeavor to tie up the resources of all subsidiary corporations, scattered throughout the United States.

An effort to obtain a detailed report of the operation of the company and its branches will be made when the petitioners appear in Common Pleas Court for the receivership hearing Friday.

The attorneys said that the C. A. E. Shoe Company, for which a receiver was asked late yesterday was a subsidiary of the R. L. Dollings Company.

Stephen and Osborne of Lynn, Mass., sought the receivership for C. A. E. Shoe Company although they admitted it to be solvent.

WOMAN ARRESTED SPRINGS SENSATION

Oakland, Cal., July 17.—Mrs. Louise Vestal, pretty young woman, who gave Marion Gino as her home and claims she is a cousin of George B. Christie, secretary to President Harding, was arrested early today at her Hotel Oakland apartment and is being held in prison on a charge of passing worthless checks.

A short time later, Frank Brown, whom she declared, persuaded her to leave Columbus, O., a year ago was arrested when he arrived from San Francisco in response to her telephone summons.

Detectors who made the arrest, declared Mrs. Vestal admitted passing worthless checks.

DENY REPORTS OF LAW VIOLATIONS

Columbus, July 17.—Reports from Washington that prohibition enforcement conditions in Dayton are unsatisfactory were denied here today by H. M. Paul, assistant federal director for Ohio.

"We have no complaints of unusual activity of bootleggers or failure of the municipal authorities to enforce the prohibition laws in Dayton," Paul declared.

The federal prohibition office in Washington as quoted as saying Director R. A. Hayes was coming to Ohio for an investigation and that he would particularly look into the Dayton situation.

WAR VETERANS NAMED

Columbus, O., July 17.—Spanish-American war veterans, named by Governor Donahey to represent Ohio at the unveiling of an American memorial at Guyana, Port Rico, August 5, include Lester Riddle, Delaware, and Colonel G. B. Donavan, George P. Zwerner, W. R. Jones and Otto Noble, Columbus. Alternates are Lieutenant Colonel Arthur W. Reynolds and Nathan A. McCoy, Columbus; W. S. Haley, Toledo, and Edison P. Cott and Harry H. Hunt, Newark.

EXPORTS GAIN; FIGURES SHOW BIG INCREASE

Pre-War Average Exceeded Hoover's Statement Indicates

Washington, July 17.—The argument that the United States can not prosper until it accomplishes the rehabilitation of the old world received a setback with the publication by the department of commerce of compilations showing American exports to the six nations of western Europe most affected by the world war and subsequent economic difficulties.

The official figures reveal that these six nations during 1922 purchased American exports to a value exceeding by 49 per cent the average for the five years immediately preceding the war. Exporters of agricultural products, it is shown, were especially fortunate. The value of their commodities exported during 1922 exceeded the pre-war average by 51 per cent.

During the period 1910-1924, inclusive, American exports to the United Kingdom, Germany, France, the Netherlands, Italy and Belgium, totalled $1,218,000,000 annually, of which commodities valued at $80,000,000 were classified as agricultural products. During 1922, according to the figures of the department of commerce, the total exports were $1,908,000,000, of which agricultural products made up $1,297,000,000.

The great increase was effected despite the fact that the annual exports to Germany increased from $21,000,000 to only $316,000,000. Agricultural exports to Germany showed an increase of $36,000,000, but the fall in the purchases of other products amounted to $31,000,000, thus leaving a net gain of only $5,000,000.

In this connection the department explains: "The figures given show clearly that the large industrial area of Europe, which is the predominant market for our agricultural products, has been taking a relatively larger proportion of these commodities recently than they did before the war."

Agricultural exports from the United States to the entire world approximate 50 per cent of all commodities shipped abroad, according to government compilations. Eighty-four per cent of the agricultural total, it is estimated, goes to Europe, and 93 per cent of the European total is taken by the six countries named.

The compilations of the department of commerce show that, although exports are far above the pre-war figures, they are barely one-half the total for the boom year of 1920. During that year the United States sent to the six nations exports totaling $3,505,000,000, of which $2,340,000,000 were agricultural products. In 1921 the total figure dropped to $1,904,000,000 and the agricultural commodities to $1,469,000,000.

GEDDES GIVES HIS OPINION OF LAW

London, July 17.—The government issued a "white paper," in which Ambassador Geddes at Washington is quoted as declaring that American prohibition, on the whole, has been effective in the rural districts and smaller towns throughout the United States.

The most significant facts in regard to the effect of prohibition as quoted by the ambassador is a 40 per cent increase in savings bank deposits and increased efficiency among workers. Prohibition is less effective, the ambassador declares, along the eastern seaboard and in the vicinity of the Great Lakes, where powerful organizations of smugglers carry on a regular traffic in liquor. Home brewing, he says, is largely on the decrease. He declared that one of the worst effects of the dry law is the men who drink sparingly before prohibition now carry flasks to social gatherings.

SEEK INCREASED PAY FOR CIVIL SERVICE

Columbus, O., July 16.—A meeting to further the organization of a protective labor union of guards, nurses and other employees of state institutions will be held here in the near future. J. E. Sullivan, president of the Columbus Federation of Labor, announced today. Increased pay for state civil service employees is the object of the proposed union.

CAN A BEAUTY BE CONVICTED?

Can Beauty Be Convicted? P. INTL.

Is it true that handsome, young, attractive, well dressed women who kill can go free and that women who are old, poorly dressed, and ugly are convicted of murder in Chicago? Aside from Mrs. Nutti-Cruelle, who occupies a cell in the Cook County Jail, the first woman ever to be sentenced there to die on the gallows, there are five names which will be remembered by the public as leading figures in celebrated murder trials. Mrs. Vera Trepagnier was old and was convicted and sent to prison for one year for killing a man who defrauded her in a business deal.

Mrs. Tillie Klimek, middle aged, squat and ugly, was sent to prison for life for murder. Mrs. Cora Isabelle Ortwein, dashing, handsome and young, was acquitted in 1912 of the murder of Herbert Zeigler. Miss Ruby Dean, beautiful cabaret singer, was acquitted in 1917 of the murder of Dr. Leon Quittman. Miss Pauline Pictka, pretty and winsome fashion designer, shot and killed Antonie K. Jindra, a hospital intern in 1917 and went free. Above, left to right, Mrs. Orthwein, Miss Plotka, Miss Dean and Mrs. Trepagnier. SEVEN MILLION GERMANS SAID TO BE SLOWLY STARVING TO DEATH

Minister of Labor Declares Decline of Mark Forces Population Into Position Where Necessities of Life Are Beyond Reach of Deflated Buying Power

Berlin, July 17.—"It is conservatively estimated that 7,690,000 German men, women and children are slowly starving to death as a result of the industrial crisis and the fatal plunge in the value of the mark," declared Dr. Heinrich Brauns, German minister of labor, in an exclusive statement to International News Service today.

"They are people who were converted into paupers because the income upon which they formerly could have lived comfortably for a whole year will not buy bread for one week under present conditions. Then, there are millions living solely upon old social insurance premiums."

"The fall of the mark has reduced these sums—once sufficient for all necessities—to ridiculous pitances that will not buy a single newspaper today. We have 400,000 actually unemployed but in addition there are millions comprising what the late Dr. Walter Rathenau called 'victims of hidden unemployment.'

"These millions are like the ballast of our industries and trade. They are kept at their jobs either at full time or part time as the result of the demobilization legislation."

"Through this human ballast ruthlessly overboard and the result would be to drive them into the streets and invite revolution. To the outside world it appears that Germany is 'dumping' her products, but in reality to the constant devaluation of our money indirectly affects all the markets of the world—particularly the labor markets."

"We do not want to underbid foreign nations, but so long as the mark to continue to tumble as it does now, foreign nations can buy our products so cheaply—against our widespread unemployment must result in those other countries. Unemployment is the beginning of downward revision of the wage scale everywhere."

"The world should understand that far from dumping our goods abroad, we are in much demand—because we import many foodstuffs from England and United States."

MAGAZINE EDITOR BURIED IN OHIO

New York, July 17.—The body of John M. Siddall, editor of the American magazine, who died at his summer home, Ardsley-on-the-Hudson, will be sent to Oberlin, Ohio, his former home, today.

Siddall, who four months ago was told by physicians that he could live but a short time, refused to abandon his post as head of the magazine he edited and continued in charge of the publication almost up to the hour of his death.

Siddall's widow will accompany the body to Oberlin, where funeral services will be held Wednesday.

KNIFE BLADE IN TONGUE.

Cincinnati, O., July 17.—Eleven days ago Walter Mount, 41, had a quarrel with William Hafer, who stabbed Mount in his left cheek with a pocket knife. He was treated at the General Hospital and released. At the hospital yesterday surgeons removed from Mount's tongue a three inch knife blade, the presence of which Mount was unaware of until his tongue began to "itch."

Succession of Cloudbursts Early Tuesday Morning Results in Overflow of Castlewood Dam—Several Small Towns Are Inundated

Denver, Colo., July 17.—Flood waters, pouring over the Castlewood dam today were threatening to undermine the structure and wipe out the entire Cherry Creek Valley near Parker, Colorado, and perhaps a large section of Denver.

Desperate efforts are being made today to strengthen the huge dam which is the sole bulwark of millions of gallons of water.

Flood warnings are being sent out to residents of lower Denver and numerous surrounding small towns.

Property damage already caused by the flood is inestimable.

The flood water resulted from a succession of cloudbursts early this morning. Rushing torrents resulting from the overflow of the Castlewood dam, 50 miles south of here, inundated several small towns.

Residents of Franktown, Parker, Melvin, Sullivan and the lower sections of Denver spent the night in nearby hills.

If the Castlewood dam breaks it will flood Denver and the towns between Castlewood to an almost unbelievable extent." John E. Field, who engineered the building of the dam, said today.

LEVIATHAN SAILS FOR RETURN TRIP, BRITISH SILENT

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 17.—The activity of British and Canadian interests to cripple the American government's efforts to operate the railway line from tidewater into the interior for opening up Alaska presented a new problem which was laid before President Harding.

Specific charges that these foreign interests are doing their utmost to keep traffic from routing over the government line from Seward to Fairbanks were brought to the president's attention with the urgent demand by shippers and those interested in Alaskan development that immediate steps be taken by the government to make reprisals upon the enemies of the government enterprise.

The Leviathan was officially "dry" carrying only one gallon of brandy for medicinal purposes. However, some of the passengers took their own supply of drinks, one personally supervising the embarkation of 36 quarts of whisky.

Sailing of the Leviathan marks another step forward in the international trans-Atlantic war which threatens British supremacy in ocean passenger transportation. Both American and German steamship lines are making serious inroads into British passenger and freight business. Never in history has the red ensign of the British mercantile fleet been under such heavy attack.

It is within the range of possibilities that rate cutting may result from the bitter competition which is growing up.

WESTERVILLE IS IN UPHEAVAL FOLLOWING POSTOFFICE FUSS

Westerville, O., July 17.—Westerville was in an uproar today following a shakeup in the postoffice by Postmistress Mary I. Lee.

The automobile was demolished by the crash and carried a distance down the tracks. Mrs. Swank was prostrated.

EXPECT 150 FORMER MEMBERS OF CO. F. 330TH INFANTRY TO ATTEND REUNION TO BE HELD HERE ON WEDNESDAY

One hundred and fifty or more former members of Company F, 330th Infantry, 83rd Division, are expected to attend the first annual reunion of that organization at the Greene County Fairgrounds, all day Wednesday.

Officers of the company will also be present, according to Sheriff Morris Sharp, erstwhile "top kick" of F Company, who is acting as aide in Greene County in planning for the reunion.

Dr. W. P. Edmunds, Washington C. H., former captain of the company, and later Major in charge of the battalion of which that company was a part, inspired the reunion and has taken a large part in the arrangements. He was beloved of all in his command during the war and many will return to renew acquaintance with their former commander.

Dr. Edmunds has not learned whether Colonel Trott, Cleveland, Regimental Commander, will be present. He has been extended an invitation. Captain Basquin, who succeeded Major Edmunds in command, and Lieutenants Clark and Wead are among officers expected to be present.

The reunion will start at nine o'clock in contradiction of orders sent out to be in uniform, it is announced that former company members should attend whether in uniform or not. Many will wear their uniforms, it is said.

The program has not yet been announced, but it is expected that former companions from Fayette, Greene and Clinton Counties will be busy during the morning renewing friendships. It is possible that there will be a hike to the river and a swim scheduled for the afternoon.

James Curlett, a former mess sergeant with the company is preparing plenty of food for two meals. Assisted by other cooks and mess sergeants of the outfit, he expects to draft into service a number of "kitchen police" to assist in getting out two big meals.

"Army shum" will be taboo at the bess, both noon and evening, which will be the first time officers and men ever sat down to eat together. Army regulations will be swept away for the first time that all have been together and the reunion will be run on a civilian basis. Major Edmunds may try his former charges in a few maneuvers such as "squads east and west," but that will be only in the spirit of fun.

A voice comparison test, and "duet" with a violin record of O'Hara's voice, was a feature of the program. Mr. O'Hara gave a lecture on the composition of music, and named the musical alphabet. Three letters of the alphabet supplied by the audience, formed the bases of a duet, written by O'Hara for his hearers.

WOMEN IN THE PARTY.

By John T. Adams, Chairman of the Republican National Committee.—The Republican party welcomes the activity of women in politics. The best proof of the sincerity of its welcome is the fact that the Republican party made it possible for women to be given the constitutional right of citizenship.

In the Republican party organizations women are performing a very valuable service. Their relation to the party organization is not perfunctory or merely honorary; it is one of activity and responsibility—a full participating partnership.

Women have actively entered politics, with the full right of citizenship, at a critical period. It is commonplace that the home and family are the cornerstone of all worthy government. In the main, problems of government are but home and family problems magnified. All policies of government react, directly or indirectly, upon the family and home life.

The great distinction between this country and other countries is the higher standard of living enjoyed here by the average family, the greater protection and safeguard thrown about children and women, the greater opportunity afforded the rising generation. All these vitally concern the home. They are distinctively Republican policies. The Republican party has always stood for the integrity, independence and upliftment of the home and the individuals within the home.

The woman of the household is the budget director. Upon her falls the responsibility of making both ends meet. She appreciates the difficulty of such a task. For that reason, none are more capable of assisting in bringing about public economy than the women of the country, and none are more appreciative of the work of this administration in that direction than the women of the country. Federal taxes have been reduced a million dollars annually, the bulk of which are lifted from the shoulders of the average family. The interest-bearing public debt has been reduced over $2,000,000,000 since March 1, 1921. The fiscal year of the federal government just closed witnessed the operation of the routine affairs of the government for $2,000,000,000 less than the government was run during the last year of the Democratic administration. These accomplishments appeal strongly to the budget directors of American families. With their support the Republican party will make further economies in public affairs.

The Republican party is truly characterized as a party of construction. It has always been such. The record of the present administration for construction and readjustment is one not equalled by any previous administration in our nation's history, or by the administration of any foreign nation of today.

There is no doubt that Republican women will do their full part in the organization and other activities of the party. Their record since their citizenship is ample evidence of this. The necessity of party loyalty and party work cannot be over-estimated. This is a government of parties which receive their commission from the people, are held responsible by the people, and are compelled to make an accounting to the people. Those who would participate to an advantage in the affairs of their government must participate actively in party affairs. The Republican women cannot perform a greater service to themselves, to their party, or to their country than by active, whole-hearted participation in party organization work.

SOCIETY WILL RECONCILE ITSELF TO THEIR CHOICE.

Ten "political prisoners" refuse to accept commutation of their sentences on the conditions laid down by the President of the United States—that they obey the laws in the future, and prove themselves good citizens of the country which shelters them. To thus agree, the "political prisoners" assert, would be to stultify themselves. No doubt they are right. Assuredly it would be a marked change for them to leave off abusing their government and make themselves law abiding patriotic Americans. Rather than attempt so sharp a departure from their past way of thinking and doing, these ten "political prisoners" will remain in the penitentiary. It is, all good citizenship will agree, the place for such crooked thinkers. Whether mentally or morally decrepit, men who harbor hatred of the republic which is their home, and which affords them opportunities for useful and happy living unequalled by those of any other land on earth, are unfitted for the responsibilities of freedom. They are unfitted to associate on terms of equality with the honest and conscientious men and women of this nation. Society can well reconcile itself to their choice of continued imprisonment rather than good behavior outside iron bars and stone walls.

Young Housewife: "What do you consider the best luncheon or supper dish you have ever heard of? I am going to have some 'in-laws' to supper and would appreciate a quick answer."

Answer: Tuna Baked Dish is, in my opinion, the most delicious supper or luncheon dish. It has the delicate flavor of a chicken dish, and I would advise you to use that for your company. I will repeat the recipe here for the sake of those who might have missed seeing it in the column some time ago:

Tuna Baked Dish: Turn the contents of one small can (half pound) of tuna fish into a bowl and stir into it one well-beaten egg, add one-half cup of sweet milk and one cup of bread crumbs (stale). Bake in a buttered dish in a hot oven for 15 minutes. Of course you must double this recipe for four or more people. (Salmon may be used in place of the tuna fish in this recipe if desired, but it has not the delicate flavor.) My menu next week will call for this dish, so be sure to file it away, as it will not be repeated.

A. C. C.: "How can one use the yolks of eggs without the whites?"

Answer: The best way I know of in hot weather is in frozen custard ice cream. Tomorrow I will give full directions for making this simple, old fashioned ice cream. Or you can simply use the custard unfrozen, if you prefer.

A Reader: "Can you give me a recipe for Baked Navy Beans Navy Style?"

Answer: No, but perhaps some Reader Friend may know of this recipe and will be kind enough to write it on a postal and mail it to me (care of this paper) to publish for you.

M. M.: "Kindly print a recipe for Tuna Fish Salad."

Answer: Tuna Fish Salad: Flake one can of tuna and mix with it an equal amount of chopped celery. Moisten well with boiled salad dressing, thinned slightly with lemon juice. Season well with salt, pepper and paprika. Serve very cold on crisp lettuce leaves.

Mrs. F. N.: "I would appreciate your publishing several good cheese-dish recipes."

Answer: I will do so next week on Wednesday, July 25.

DANGERS
Away for the summer,
Away from the heat,
Away from the noise,
And the din of the street,
Away from the autos
Which dash up and down,
Away from the dangers
Which lurk in the town.

Out to the country,
Where life is secure,
If only the water
And milk shall be pure,
Where nothing can happen
Unless it should be
One of the children
Shall fall from a tree.

Away from the auto,
To watch them all day
At the edge of the lake,
Where they venture to play
Where there is no danger
Whatever they do—
Unless they stand up
In the neighbor's canoe.

Now, children and dangers—
Are partners, I'll swear:
Wherever you take them
Some hazard is there,
Away from the dangers
Which lurk in the town.
We fly to the fear
That our youngsters may drown.

Today's Talk

TRY TO WALK UPRIGHT

Sometimes it's very difficult to keep our heads right up and straight forward.

There are things at times that take the very smile right off our faces and we seem powerless to understand.

Perhaps that is the way you feel right now. Then try to walk erect! Your very attitude is bound to be a force of renewal and revival.

Just before dawn it is the darkest. For the moon is then farthest on the western horizon and the sun is still below the eastern horizon.

Longfellow in his "Tales of a Way-side Inn" has these beautiful lines: "But the nearer the dawn, the darker the night, And by going wrong all things come right;

Things have been mended that were worse,

And the worse, the nearer they are to mend!"

By walking erect we advertise to the world our ability to work through our desire to perform without complaint and to round out our task.

Marine Corps Commander Has New Aide

Brig Gen. Logan Feland

Brigadier-General Logan Feland, United States Marine Corps, hero of Belleau Wood and a dozen other bloody fields of France, has been appointed aide to Major-General John A. Lejeune, commanding the famous corps. General Feland was formerly head of the Division of Operations and Training of the Corps and succeeds Major-General W. C. Neville as assistant to the commanding general. He has served with the Marines since 1899 and was among the first to sail for France, where he won the D. S. C. and the D. S. M. and the rank of Officer in the French Legion of Honor.

Styles BY LENORE

Perhaps you have wearied of seeing monograms so often repeated on blouses and dresses. A smart Fifth Avenue shop cleverly varies this idea by substituting a cluster of field flowers in different combinations and the result is astonishingly effective. It has been tried on white silk sports blouses, and on a very simple sports frock, which is illustrated in the sketch.

White, green and old blue linen make an excellent background for these vivid spots of color, with white organdy collar and cuffs, and narrow ribbon to match the color of the dress or one of the colors of the embroidery, if the frock is white.

HEAL SKIN DISEASES

Apply Zemo, Clean, Penetrating, Antiseptic Liquid

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with Eczema, Blotches, Ringworm, Rashes and similar skin troubles. Zemo obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. Get it today and save all further distress.

In either case, there is an opportunity to satisfy vagaries of the mood by changing the colors of the ribbon.

Gingham and chambrays are stressed in many of the summer designs, and indeed are preferred by many to linen, as they retain their freshness. The chemise model with short sleeves, the type that is cut with fullness at the sides, is usually employed as the basis of these dresses, and they are frequently trimmed with appliqued motifs of sateen, or linen, applied to the dress with hand-stitching. Tucking and cross-stitching in floral designs are also used a lot.

TWO DRY OFFICERS RESIGN.

Columbus, July 17.—In line with changes being made in the prohibitory department under the administration of Governor Donahey, F. E. Gary and H. E. McCullough of this city, prohibition inspectors, have resigned, their resignations to become effective Aug. 1. The resignation of Inspector Gary was asked for by Prohibition Commissioner McDonald and Inspector McCullough, Gary's running mate, voluntarily resigned.

REAL BASEBALL MARKED SUNDAY AFTERNOON GAME

With major league ball teams giving wild and wooly exhibitions of the national pastime in which the so-called "lively ball" is taken advantage of, it is refreshing to see a semi-pro contest such as that staged between the Xenia Bayiffs and the Cincinnati Coca Colas at Washington Park Sunday.

It is true that fans like to see the home team win, but they would rather be furnished with a real diamond contest such as Sunday's pastimining even with the home team losing than one of these slatterns in which the home team lucks through to an overwhelming victory.

Baseball as clean as a whistle was shown at the Park here Sunday. The pastimining was air tight for six innings and this was especially shown with men on bases. A good example took place in the first inning. Stiles "stole" first base, getting there on a raincheck when his bouncher drew the doorkeeper off and his peg to the bar was late. Marly sacrificed him to second and he took third on Furnas' bunt down the third base line. Furnas being safe, Furnas stole second and Shuey walked. At this stage Shuey started an attempted squeeze play by taking a big lead off first, Shuey drew the throw all right, but the Cincinnati infield worked with such precision that Stiles was cut off at the plate on a peg from first. Tucker popped out for the finale.

This is just an illustration of the tightness of the game which kept the tugs on their toes all the time. If this kind of baseball is on tap here, why watch major league clubs assault the grand old game at high prices?

RAIN STOPS REDS WHEN OTHER CLUBS FAIL TO HALT THEM

Old Man Rain did something that seven clubs in the National League have failed to do successfully Monday when he stopped the Cincinnati Reds flat at Boston. And it took a cloudburst to do it.

All set to reach out behind Adolph Luque and Rube Benton and take the Braves for two victories, the Redlegs were much disappointed at the untimely action of the elements.

The postponement means the scheduled double-header with the same batters working is on tap for Tuesday. A double-win will increase the prestige of the Moranites especially should the Giants lose. The Reds picked up a half-game during the idleness Sunday and had visions of another gain in the percentage column Monday when the Cubs trounced the Giants in the opening contest Monday but the champions came back to take the second fracas and even the standing.

in their playing they will find themselves shipwrecked.

The Giants have 71 more games to play and fifty of them are with the western teams. Up to date, the Giants have played their western rivals 38 games and of these have only annexed 20 victories.

When the Giants went west on their last trip they had what appeared to be a commanding lead, but they fell by the wayside and come home barely in first place. They increased this advantage by winning games from the Phillies and Braves, who have given little opposition this year, but when the western teams again hit the Polo Grounds, the needed punch to outdistance their rivals was lacking.

The time of the four heats is also considered a record. Kentucky Dounie won the first heat in 2:09 3-4 while Arnold Frisco took the third in 2:08 1-2 and Cupid Albingen took the thing in record time and the fourth in 2:07 1-2. Peter Coley had previously held the Findlay track record in 2:08 1-4 made at Findlay in an exhibition mile.

The half-mile trotting record was previously held by four horses at 2:06 1-4. They were Charley Rex, 2:04 1-4; Binland, 2:03 3-4; Esperanza, 2:03 2-4; and Clyde the Great, 2:03 3-4. Herbel Wyn of the Hal Erwin stable equalled the former record of 2:06 1-4 two years ago at Findlay in an exhibition mile.

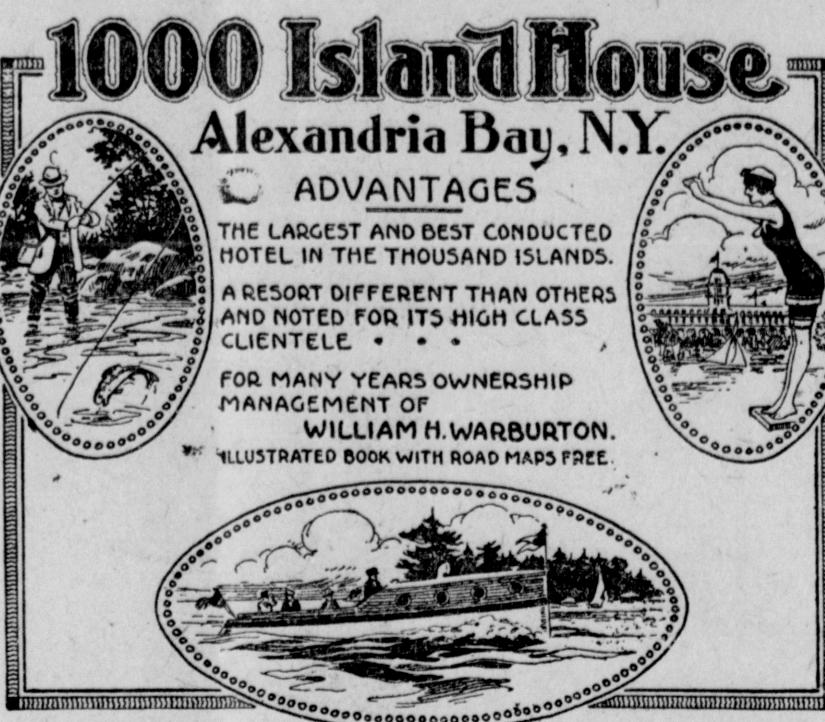

FANS SAY KEARNS WILL REJECT TEX RICKARD'S OFFER

New York, July 17.—Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champ, is today "thinking over" Tex Rickard's offer to stage a meeting between Dempsey and Luis Angel Firpo in Argentine in October.

Fight fans predicted Kearns would turn down the offer. Rickard's hope is that the fight would draw in $800,000 gate—half to go to Dempsey—if staged in South America.

When Your Gas

Bill Goes Up

Have a look and see if it isn't too much for what you are getting. Probably you can cut it materially without inconvenience to yourself.

Matches are cheaper than gas. When you are not using gas, why let it burn?

You cannot heat a liquid hotter than its boiling point. When the contents of your cooking utensil begin to boil, turn down the flame. Your money pays for the unnecessary heat.

Look For Leaks

Then have a look for gas leaks. Government engineers say about one foot of every six delivered to households is wasted in little leaks. They don't do anybody any good—and one dollar in every six is worth saving.

Maybe you are using appliances not originally intended for gas burning. That is expensive. They cannot deliver more than a third efficiency.

PLUMBERS ELECT.

NOAH BAUGHN DIES IN WASHINGTON C. H.

Deputy Sheriff John Baughn went to Washington C. H. Tuesday afternoon to attend funeral services for his brother, Noah Baughn, 65, who died at his home in Washington Sunday afternoon at four o'clock after a brief illness.

Mr. Baughn, superintendent of the Sunday School at Sugarcreek Baptist Church, near Washington for years, had just concluded the class work and turned the class over to Judge Reid of Washington C. H., for an address, when he was suddenly taken ill. His brother, of this city, going to visit him, arrived just as he was overcome. He was removed to his home in Washington where death took place. Apoplexy was given as the cause of death.

Mr. Baughn was born at Sugar Creek, Fayette County, near Washington 65 years ago last February. He had spent a great part of his life there and later lived in Jamestown for many years, before removing to Washington. He was field man for the Washington Canning Company since the establishment of that concern and was well known over Fayette County.

Surviving is his widow, one daughter, Miss Goldie Baughn, principal of Washington High School, who was at Oxford when her father died, and one son, Walter Baughn, of near Sugarcreek. He was one of a family of 18 children, nine of whom survive. They are: Deputy Sheriff John Baughn, of this city; Mrs. Roscoe Stinson, of the Stinson Conservatory, Washington C. H.; Mrs. Alta Jones, Zanesville; Mrs. Nettie Simms, Columbus; Mrs. Vilco Wood at home; Elmer and Roscoe Baughn, Washington C. H.; Charles of South Charles-ton and Mont, who is in Mexico.

Funeral services were held at the Sugarcreek Baptist Church, two and one-half miles from Washington on the Jamestown and Washington pike at three o'clock Tuesday afternoon and burial was made in the cemetery there.
